Vacation Packing Checklist

One list for any trip. Start with the core every traveler needs, then add only the section that matches your trip - beach, cruise, city, or cold weather. Print it, check items off as you pack, and use it again to repack for the trip home.

Documents, IDs & Money

- [ ] Government-issued photo ID for each traveler
- [ ] Passport, if your trip requires one - check the expiration date
- [ ] Boarding passes, tickets, and confirmation numbers
- [ ] Hotel, rental car, tour, and activity confirmations
- [ ] Payment cards plus a small amount of cash
- [ ] Health insurance card and emergency contact list
- [ ] Photos or copies of IDs and cards stored separately from the originals

Clothing

- [ ] Tops - one per day, plus one extra
- [ ] Bottoms that mix and match with your tops
- [ ] Underwear and socks - one set per day, plus one extra
- [ ] Sleepwear
- [ ] One dressier outfit for dinners or events
- [ ] Light jacket or layer for cool evenings and air conditioning
- [ ] Workout or active clothes, if planned
- [ ] Laundry bag for worn clothes

Footwear

- [ ] Comfortable walking shoes, already broken in
- [ ] Second pair for evenings or dressier plans
- [ ] Sandals or flip-flops, if needed
- [ ] Extra socks

> Packing tip: Wear your heaviest shoes and jacket while you travel to save suitcase space.

Toiletries & Medications

- [ ] Toothbrush, toothpaste, and floss
- [ ] Deodorant
- [ ] Shampoo, conditioner, and body wash
- [ ] Hairbrush or comb and styling items
- [ ] Skincare, moisturizer, and lip balm
- [ ] Makeup and makeup remover, if used
- [ ] Razor and shaving items
- [ ] Prescription medications - in your carry-on, in original bottles
- [ ] Pain reliever, allergy medicine, and motion-sickness aid
- [ ] Bandages and a small first-aid kit
- [ ] Glasses, contacts, solution, and a spare pair
- [ ] Hand sanitizer and tissues

Electronics & Chargers

- [ ] Phone and charging cable
- [ ] Portable power bank, charged
- [ ] Chargers for watch, tablet, camera, and earbuds
- [ ] Headphones or earbuds
- [ ] Camera and memory cards, if you use one
- [ ] Travel adapter, if your destination uses different plugs
- [ ] Small power strip or multi-port charger for the room

> Carry-on rule: Keep medications, chargers, a change of clothes, and anything you cannot replace in your carry-on - never in checked luggage.

Day-Bag Essentials

What stays with you while you are out exploring, separate from your suitcase.

- [ ] Refillable water bottle
- [ ] Sunglasses and sunscreen
- [ ] Snacks for travel days
- [ ] Wet wipes and tissues
- [ ] Small umbrella or packable rain layer
- [ ] Cross-body bag, backpack, or daypack
- [ ] Wallet kept in a secure, zipped pocket
- [ ] Pen for forms and notes
- [ ] Reusable shopping bag
- [ ] Copy of the day's plan and hotel address

Kids & Family Extras

Skip this section if you are not traveling with children.

- [ ] Diapers, wipes, and a change of clothes for each child
- [ ] Snacks, sippy cup or bottle, and formula if needed
- [ ] Tablet, books, coloring, or small toys for travel time
- [ ] Child-safe sunscreen and any child medications
- [ ] Stroller or carrier, if used
- [ ] Comfort item - blanket or stuffed animal
- [ ] Swim diapers, if swimming is planned
- [ ] ID or contact card in each child's bag

Before You Leave Home

AT HOME - A FEW DAYS BEFORE

- [ ] Hold mail and packages, or ask someone to collect them
- [ ] Arrange pet care and plant watering
- [ ] Check the weather at your destination and adjust your list
- [ ] Download maps, tickets, and entertainment for offline use
- [ ] Charge all devices and power banks

THE DAY BEFORE

- [ ] Finish packing and weigh your bags
- [ ] Check in for flights and save boarding passes
- [ ] Set out travel-day clothes and your day bag
- [ ] Tell a trusted person your itinerary and return date

OUT THE DOOR

- [ ] Windows closed and doors locked
- [ ] Phone, wallet, ID, and keys in hand - check twice
- [ ] Carry-on has medications, chargers, and one change of clothes
- [ ] Final walk-through of every room

ADD-ON

Beach Trips

- [ ] Swimsuits - at least two, so one can dry
- [ ] Cover-up or light shirt for off the sand
- [ ] Beach towel or quick-dry travel towel
- [ ] Reef-safe sunscreen and aloe or after-sun lotion
- [ ] Hat and sunglasses with a strap
- [ ] Waterproof phone pouch and dry bag
- [ ] Water shoes or sandals that can get wet
- [ ] Beach bag, separate from your day bag

ADD-ON

Cruises

- [ ] Cruise documents and luggage tags, printed
- [ ] Lanyard for your ship card
- [ ] Dressier outfit for formal or theme nights
- [ ] Light sweater for air-conditioned indoor areas
- [ ] Motion-sickness aid, just in case
- [ ] Small day bag for port days
- [ ] Refillable water bottle for excursions
- [ ] Swimsuit packed in your carry-on for embarkation day

City Trips

- [ ] Broken-in walking shoes - city days are high-step days
- [ ] Cross-body bag or anti-theft daypack
- [ ] Outfits that layer for museums, restaurants, and evenings
- [ ] Compact umbrella
- [ ] Transit app or card plan for getting around
- [ ] Portable charger - maps and photos drain batteries fast
- [ ] One dressier outfit for shows or nice dinners
- [ ] Reusable water bottle

ADD-ON

Cold-Weather & Mountain Trips

- [ ] Warm base layers - tops and bottoms
- [ ] Insulated, waterproof jacket
- [ ] Warm hat, gloves or mittens, and scarf
- [ ] Wool or thermal socks - pack extras
- [ ] Waterproof boots with good tread
- [ ] Lip balm and rich moisturizer for dry air
- [ ] Sunglasses - glare off snow is strong
- [ ] Sunscreen for exposed skin at altitude

Smart Packing Tips

- [ ] Roll soft clothes to save space and reduce wrinkles
- [ ] Pack outfits, not single pieces - every item should match at least two others
- [ ] Put liquids in a sealed bag, in an outside pocket when you can
- [ ] Leave a little room for things you bring home
- [ ] Repack with this same list so nothing gets left behind
